(1) Foreign investments present additional risks due to currency fluctuations, economic and political factors, government regulations, differences in accounting standards and other factors. Investments in emerging markets involve even greater risks.

(2) Due to the limited focus of this Fund, it is more susceptible to market volatility because smaller companies may not have the management experience, financial resources, product diversification and competitive strengths of larger companies. Additionally, smaller company stocks tend to be sold less often and in smaller amounts than the stocks of larger companies.

(3) Prior to July 2, 2001, the Fund was known as the UMB Scout Regional Fund and was managed in accordance with a different investment objective and strategy.

(4) Prior to April 1, 2005, the Fund was managed in accordance with a different investment strategy.

The performance returns for the Scout Stock Fund, Scout Mid Cap Fund, Scout Bond Fund and Scout International Discovery Fund reflect a fee waiver effect. In the absence of such waiver, the returns would be reduced.

A redemption fee of 2.00% will be imposed on redemptions or exchanges of shares you have owned for two months or less in the Scout Mid Cap Fund, Scout Small Cap Fund, Scout International Fund and Scout International Discovery Fund. Please see the prospectus for more information.

(5) The UMB Scout World Wide Fund name was changed to UMB Scout International Fund on October 31, 2006, and changed to Scout International Fund 07/01/2009.
